

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

4240 Architecture Denver Slated to Move

Denver, CO, March 8, 2011-

Denver, March 08, 2011 -- After May 1st you will find 4240 Architecture on the sunny North side of the Platte River, still within the blossoming River North (RiNO) Neighborhood. Our new studio will continue to support 4240's creativity and collaboration through an open, flexible space crafted with repurposed building materials. We look forward to working with you at our new address, 3507 Ringsby Court, Suite 117, Denver, CO 80216.

4240 Architecture
Denver Slated to Move

Background:

Established in 2003, the firm's studios in Chicago [located at 42° latitude] and Denver [located at 40° latitude] form 4240 Architecture. 4240 is comprised of an efficient and visionary team of professionals fluent in designing both locally and globally. Our award-winning projects include single and multi-family residential, mixed-use urban infill, commercial, higher education, resort and hospitality. We value our clients, a research-based process, continual education, exploration, efficiency, innovation, practice, craft, performance, science and art. We are motivated by beauty, both at the surface and beyond...

Contact:

Michele Decker
4240 Marketing
303.785.7258
mdecker@4240arch.com
###